

Making the Peace

Violence Prevention Workshop for Teens and Young Adults

Making The Peace...

A 15-sessions workshop helping youth deal with the deeper, more sensitive issues around violence in a caring, safe, and respectful manner.

Course includes a process of looking at the causes of violence among youth. It gives youth a non-threatening arena to express their fears, frustrations, and gives solutions about violence.

The Curriculum presents the unique term of “ally” that captures the essence of how people can develop to be proponents for peace.
